Did you know? "Although during the months just preceding the Treaty, both the 'Edmonton Journal' and the 'Edmonton Bulletin' had featured many stories on oil and mineral discoveries in the Mackenzie District, neither had assigned reporters to cover the journey of the Treaty party, as the Bulletin had done in 1899." – As Long as This Land Shall Last, pg. 210.

Map of Tulita for newcomers!

There is many places to walk or visit to talk to people. You can walk along the Two Rivers Trail located past the Parks Canada Trailer Building. You can walk through the town, as well as towards Plane Lake Dr to the airport and from Water Intake to the Gas Station. You can walk along the shore, all the way to the bank where the boats load off and where the Barge stops.

Funny Stories

Sharing

An old man and his wife went to their local fast-food restaurant. The man placed an order for one hamburger, French fries, and a drink. He unwrapped the plain hamburger and carefully cut it in half, placing one half in front of his wife. He then carefully counted out the French fries, dividing them into two piles and neatly placed one pile in front of his wife. He took a sip of the drink, his wife took a sip and then set the cup down between them. As he began to eat his few bites of hamburger, the people around them were looking over and whispering. Obviously, they were thinking, “That poor old couple, all they can afford is one meal for the two of them.” As the man began to eat his fries a young man came to the table and politely offered to buy another meal for the old couple. The old man said, they were just fine, they were used to sharing everything. People closer to the table noticed the little lady hadn’t eaten a bite. She sat there watching her husband eat and occasionally taking turns sipping the drink. Again, the young man came over and begged them to let him buy another meal for them. This time the old woman said, “No, thank you, we are used to sharing everything.” Finally, as the old man finished and was wiping his face neatly with the napkin, the young man again came over to the little old lady who had yet to eat a single bite of food and asked “What is it are you waiting for?” The old lady answered, “The teeth!”

Do you know how I am?

One day a famous old celebrity went to a nursing home to see all of his friends again and see how everyone was doing. When he got there, he was immediately greeted by everyone because they recognized him instantly. He said hi to all of his friends warmly, but then noticed one man didn’t say anything to him, or even give him a glance. This was puzzling. Didn’t the man know who he was? Surely, he’d seen some of his movies or his TV show! He finally decided to talk to the man. The celebrity went up to the old man and stood in front of him, asking, “Do you know who I am?” The old man looked at him, and quickly replied, “No, but you can go to the front desk and they’ll tell you.”

Name

An elderly couple has dinner at another couple’s house, and after eating, the wives leave the table and go into the kitchen. The two gentlemen were talking, and one says, “Last night we went out to a new restaurant and it was really great. I would recommend it very highly.” The other man asks, “What is the name of the restaurant?” The first man thinks and thinks and finally asks, “What is the name of that flower you give to someone you love? You know ... the one that’s red and has thorns?” “Do you mean a rose?” “Yes, that’s the one.” Replied the man. He then turned towards the kitchen and yelled, “Rose, what’s the name of that restaurant we went to last night?”

Laptop

My mum’s laptop wallpaper has a picture of her granddaughter. I copied the picture 100 times and made her wallpaper a slideshow of the same picture over and over again, so the file would change but nothing would change visibly on the monitor. The pictures would change every 10 seconds. On one of the images, I painted a tiny little curly moustache on her. So randomly for 10 seconds, my niece would have a moustache. My mum thought she was either losing her mind or had a computer virus and every time the moustache popped up, it was gone by the time she tried to show anyone.

Blind Date

Two of my friends have never met each other. Before they met on their blind date, I told both of them that the other was a bit deaf. They shouted at each other for a few minutes before they realized what I did. Now they don't speak to me, lol.

Snake

I remembered like it was yesterday. At summer camp, my cabin's leaders found a little snake that wasn't doing so well so they decided to put it in an old terrarium in our cabin. A few of the guys were nervous about it. So, the next day, when the leaders decided the snake was well enough to release, I asked that they keep quiet about releasing it. When the other guys got back to the cabin and found no snake in the terrarium, chaos ensued.

Kansas City

My coworkers in the Chicago office asked me to bring back a phone book and the hotel stationary from my business trip to Kansas City. They were preparing for another coworker's bachelor party for the night before the wedding. The groom was known for drinking to an extent that was considered legendary. After a night of drinking, he woke up on the morning of his wedding in a hotel room. He checked the nightstand and found the Kansas City phone book. The desk was stocked with KC stationary. His friends had clued the front desk staff in on what was happening and convinced them to answer the phone with "Good morning and welcome to the Kansas City Holiday Inn." It was about 5 hours till the wedding, and he was actually only a couple miles from the venue, but the freakout was epic!

Surgery

I was nine. My dad just had a hernia surgery the day prior and was recuperating on the couch. Before I left for school, I put on the Martha Stewart channel and left the remote just beyond his reach. He spent eight hours learning how to arrange pillows on a bed. He exacted his revenge fifteen years later. I'd just had my emergency c-section and he put Frozen on and left it on a loop while the entire family left for the mall and left the remote just out of my reach. Revenge is indeed a dish best served cold.

Babysitting

I needed a babysitter but I could not find anyone at the last minute, but I did have my 13-year-old son who may be able to babysit his younger sisters. I was not thrilled with the idea, even though he begged me to because of the extra money he would get. "What about a fire?" I asked, referring to my No. 1 concern about household accidents. "Mom," he said, rolling his eyes, "I'm a Boy Scout. I know how to start a fire." This did not help my anxiety.

Airplane

"What the difference between an optimist and a pessimist?" I asked my husband. He thought for a minute before responding, "An optimist is the guy who created the airplane. A pessimist is the guy who created the parachute."

First Communion – June 2nd, 2024

This Sunday, Sister Celeste and her new students, had their first Communion! There were nine participants this year who completed their studies with Sister. Their names are: Alexa, Alexis, Ashton, Colton, Deslynn, Hollie, Hycinath, Issac, and Xavier. Families and friends came to the church to attend the communion and to receive their church services. Everyone had huge smiles for the children, which encouraged the children to make sure their words and actions were perfect, if not a little shy. We hope that everyone had enjoyed the event and that Sister is happy with everyone.

[ORIGINAL.]

Fort Norman, 26 June, 1826.

DEAR SIR,—I am sorry that we had not the pleasure of meeting at this place, as it would have afforded me the opportunity of thanking you for your kind intentions as to procuring for the expedition specimens of natural history from the vicinity of your winter quarters. The animals to which you allude in your letter to Dr. Richardson, are much required in our museums in England, as well as Scotland, and therefore would be prized as rarities. I have made repeated applications for them to be procured without effect; but I now hope through your means that these specimens will be added to Dr. Richardson's collection, and you may be assured that I shall not fail to mention to the committee of the Hudson's Bay Company your good intentions in our behalf.

I have considered that it will not be necessary to send down here all the Pemmicam which we have reason to expect from Fort Chipicvyon this autumn. There will only require to be forwarded to Fort

AND QUERIES.

- Norman twelve bags of Pemmicam, four s of which are to be forwarded on to Fort f Good Hope, and the remainder of the Pemmicam I wish to be kept at Fort Simpson for the use of my party on its y outgoing journey next year; all the grease,
l however, is to be sent to Fort Norman.
y I shall be obliged by your causing this
- arrangement to be made.

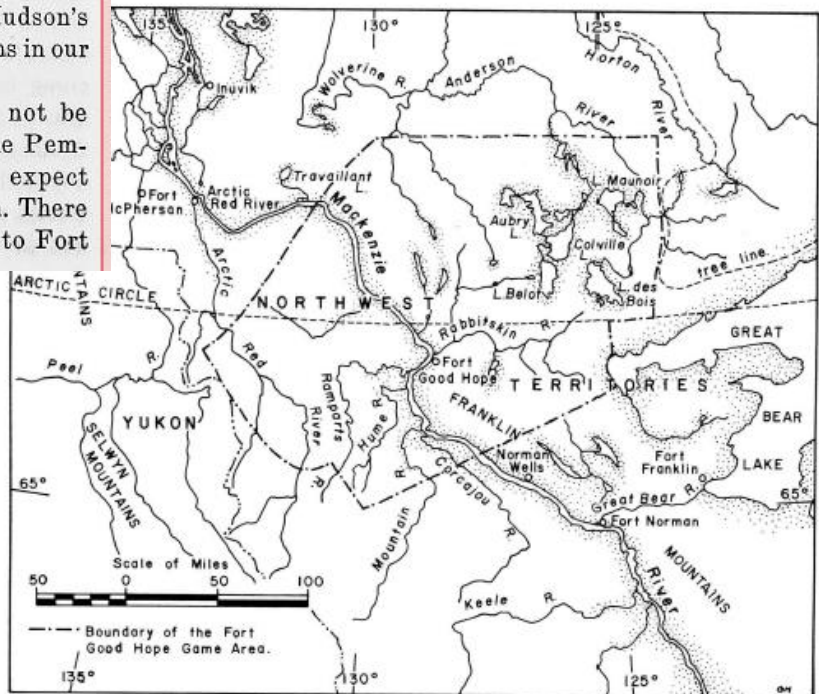

I am, dear sir,

Yours truly,

JOHN FRANKLIN,

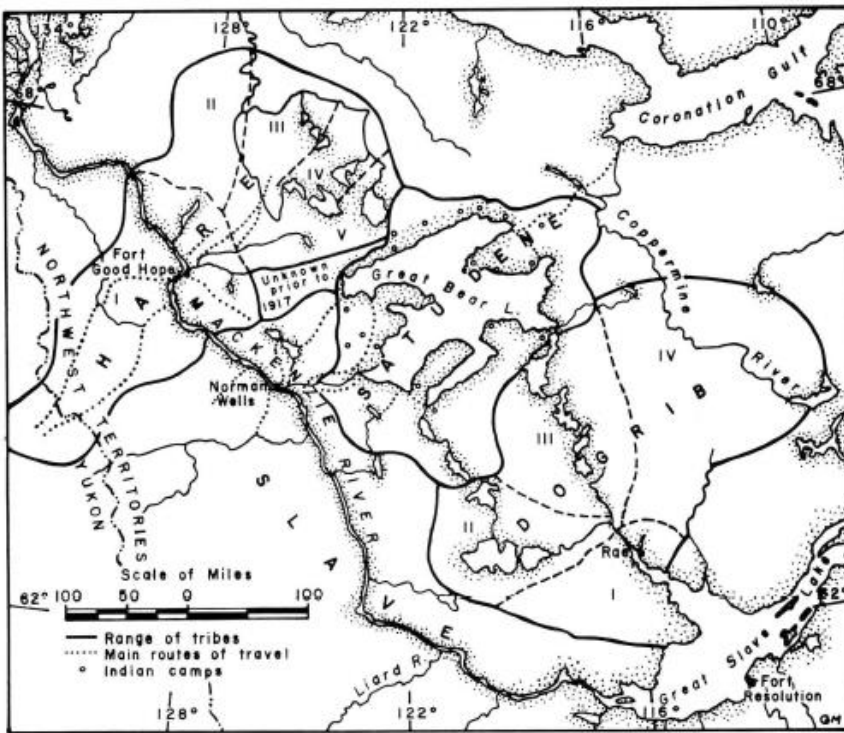

Captain and Commander Land Arctic Expedition.

To Mr. McPherson, or the gentleman acting for the H. and B. Co., Fort Simpson.
